

Weapons

guards

Planted crops

spies

They all worked together to make an army

How we arm ourselves

Leaders and teachers are like our guards

We store food and other things to be prepared for emergencies

The prophet and apostles see what we can't see and warn us of things

We work together with our ward family to strengthen each other