

Ammon and his brothers left to serve missions

Ammon was captured and taken to King Lamoni

Ammon offered to help watch the King's flock

Robbers came and scattered the flocks

The king's servants were worried but Ammon helped them gather the flocks

When the robbers came back Ammon fought them

The king agreed to listen to Ammon because of his service

The king believed and prayed

The king and queen were overcome by the spirit

Abish gathered a group and helped the king and queen wake up

The group listened and Ammon baptized them
